MORE

Take that first step over the edge with abseiling in Pietermaritzburg and plunge into a world of adrenaline, beauty and a world that speaks to your entire being. Abseil down alongside one of South Africa's highest waterfalls with your partner, friend or even your child at your other side. Howick Falls is South Africa's second tallest waterfall at a staggering 107 meters (357ft).

Feel the powerful waterfall reverberate right next to you with complete peace of mind that you are completely safe in the capable hands and under the watchful eyes of competent and qualified experts. It may also be worthwhile knowing that this is the only abseiling adventure in all of Africa that will see you end up in a crocodile! Before you jump to conclusions, this crocodile is an inflatable kayak capable of carrying two, made by African River Kraft.

From your abseil you will enjoy a scenic paddle by in your inflatable by a qualified guide to the start of a beautiful forest walk that will take you through the Howick Falls Conservancy. Keep an eye out for indigenous wildlife on your walk; you never know what you will see along the way.

TAKE NOTE: We specialise in group outings, group activities and team buildings. The more people in the group, the less the price per person becomes.

Our minimum charge for abseiling is for pax 3, this means that if pax 2 book, they can both abseil a 2nd time at half price.
