More about the adventure

The first day of your Breede River Kayaking Adventure kicks off with brunch on the river banks where after its time to make a splash and get into the water, but not before a quick safety briefing. The kayaks being used are inflatable crocs, they are very stable and rather easy to paddle. You can enjoy a picnic spread on the banks for lunch and some late afternoon wine tasting. On your Breede River Kayaking Adventure its all about enjoying yourself, savoring the fine experience of Africa and adding to your memories.

Getting up to the river is no problem at all, full directions will be given upon booking confirmation. Accommodation is provided in the form of comfortable waters edge chalets, each of which sleeps 4-6 people. Each chalet has one en-suit bathroom and all the linen is supplied. There is also a central boma, or dining area, where you can socialize and enjoy your meals. All meals are catered for. The menu comprises of freshly prepared African bush cuisine, tea, coffee and cold drinks.

Aside from your 2-day Breede River Kayaking Adventure, there are other activities available in the area. The area being the largest wine producing area in the country, it is also home to some of the countrys best wine cellars and as such wine tasting is high on the list. There are a good many local wines to taste, savor and purchase to take home and add to your wine collection. For the corporate and teambuilding side of things, there is an in-house conference centre and low and high ropes course that will be of interest. There is also a tasteful range of alternative accommodation available in the area so dont hesitate to contact us for further information.
