INTRO

Kayaking Orange River 4 Days & 5 Nights

This is a 4 days and 5 nights kayak adventure trip on a section of the Orange River, South Africa that includes abseiling for those who feel up to it. There is also the option of rafts for those that do not feel confident to tackle the trip in kayaks.

Kayaking on the Orange River in South Africa Adventure Gift Vouchers are Available.

This is a self-contained adventure expedition; we carry everything in with us and bring everything back out with us again. We cover about 30 km during the kayak trip, so it is a leisurely pace that gives everyone ample time to explore and relax. Along the trip we camp out at a different campsite each night and go on from there each morning.

MORE

What to bring:

Your personal gear, toiletries and drinks of your choice.

INTINERARY

ItineraryEvening before trip

Everyone arrives at the Gravity base camp and once settled in, relax and enjoy the view, have sundowners and get to know each other.

Day 1

Get ready for the adventure of Kayaking down the Orange River. Get organised with dry bags for all gear and have a safety briefing and padding instruction by guides. We start off near Pofadder and paddle through channels and flat water.

Day 2

Today we tackle the rapids and spend the day mostly on the river and in the evening take a walk to the Ritchie Falls

Day 3

Things get challenges today with portage around the Falls, abseiling and shooting the 42 man hole rapids, the Big Bunny and the Dolly Parton rapids.

Day 4

Today we leave the gorge and the rapids for the last section of our kayak adventure. The sailing is mostly gentle drifting at an easy pace. You will be met at the take out point on the river and then transported back to base camp where everyone gathers for a final meal around the campfire before each going their own way at the end of the Orange River kayak adventure.
