INTRO

Quad biking adventures have become hugely popular as family outings, as part of work team building events, corporate events, as special presents for birthdays or any other occasion.

Quad biking is the most outrageous fun adults can have, get grimy and dirty in the name of fun and you don't have to be dignified or 'act your age'. Quad biking adventures have become hugely popular as family outings, as part of work team building events, corporate events, as special presents for birthdays or any other occasion.

What makes quad biking so popular besides the incredible fun? Quads are far safer and more stable than motorcycles, so this means just about everyone can ride a quad bike successfully. You don't need a license to ride off-road quad biking trails so you can participate if you are younger than 18 years of age. You can choose the type of trail you want to do so if you are inexperienced you can go for the scenic and non-technical trails and for those that want to take adventure up a few levels, there are the quad biking trails that are for the advanced and experienced riders and of course the tours where you go for a week or two riding in groups.

For some of the best quad biking, the place to come to is Magoebaskloof where we offer a specially created quad biking trail that goes through the indigenous forest alongside the Great Letaba River and takes you over the mountains that overlook the picturesque George's Valley.

Location

Magoebaskloof, between Polokwane and Tzaneen and near Haenertsburg, in the Limpopo Province, South Africa.

What we offer

An excellent quad biking trail suitable for all levels of expertise that is suitable for individuals and groups.

What to bring with for the day

- Make sure you bring comfortable clothes that will not chafe you anywhere during the ride such as T-shirts and well-worn denims. Wear boots or trainers, not open toed sandals.
- Windbreaker or warm jacket.
- Sun protection: sunglasses and sunscreen SPF 30+
- Bring a complete set of spare clothes so that you can change afterwards as you will most likely get grimy.
- Camera

We do open-date gift vouchers that you can hand to the recipients as gifts on a special day. This allows the recipient the flexibility to make the final booking on a date that suits his/her personal schedule. This also turns the gift into a “double whammy” gift as the recipient receives the voucher on the special day and then has the anticipation of going on the adventure on a suitable date.

Our open date vouchers are valid for a period of 6 months from date of issue; this is a precaution to guard against price increases only, the value of the voucher is never lost. Should the participant not use the voucher within that time period, the value is still there, and if there has been no price increases, the recipient uses the voucher as is. If after the six months grace period there has been a price increase, the recipient will be liable to pay in the price difference only.
